

Fr. Victor Salomón

PRIEST ASSOCIATE, PRIESTS FOR LIFE

FR. VICTOR SALOMÓN is the worldwide Director of Hispanic Outreach for Priests for Life, the largest pro-life ministry in the Catholic Church. He was born in Venezuela, and belongs to the Diocesan Laborer Priests, a priestly association of pontifical right, dedicated to vocational youth ministry and priestly formation centered upon The Eucharist.

He was ordained to the priesthood in 1998 in Caracas, Venezuela. He has a background in sociology, and has served as a pastor and in priestly formation work. He served on the Governing Council of the Diocesan Laborer Priests in Venezuela until he was sent to serve in the United States in 2005.

As a member of the Diocesan Laborer Priests, Fr. Salomón has taught courses to promote vocations. He has also been a retreat master, a spiritual director, and a professor of theology, family communication and enculturation.

Fr. Salomón also specializes in healing after abortion, and helps to conduct Rachel's Vineyard Retreats in Spanish in various parts of the world.

As Director of Hispanic Outreach for Priests for Life, Fr. Victor is the host of EWTN's Spanish version of Defending Life, which reaches Hispanics throughout Latin America, Spain, the United States, and other parts of the world. He is a columnist on the digital publication The Americano and author of the pro-life novel entitled "Interview at 3:00 am: The First Call of God".

Fr. Salomón is deeply concerned about the loss of life caused by abortion, especially in the Hispanic community in the United States.

To arrange a media interview, email media@priestsforlife.org or call 888-735-3448, ext. 251

To invite Fr. Salomón to speak in your area, contact our Speakers Bureau at 888-735-3448, ext. 258;
Fax: 718-980-7191 Email: travels@priestsforlife.org