

General Intercessions for the Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time, Cycle C

Celebrant:

God's Providence governs history as well as the course of our own lives. Trusting in that loving providence, we now bring the Lord all the needs of our one human family.

Deacon/Lector:

That the Church may proclaim with joyful hope the resurrection of the dead in Jesus Christ, we pray to the Lord...

That world leaders may secure religious liberty for people of every nation, we pray to the Lord...

For all who labor on the land and gather the earth's harvest, we pray to the Lord...

That the sick may be consoled, the lonely comforted, and all the oppressed set free, we pray to the Lord...

That all who have died may rejoice in eternal peace, we pray to the Lord...

Celebrant:

Lord, continue to protect us with your grace.
Provide for our needs,
That we may always trust you
And serve you faithfully.
Grant this through Christ our Lord.

Amen.
